

As a satellite radio subscriber and taxpaying citizen, I would like to express my opposition to HR 4026. This country is founded in innovation and competition, and if we are to progress in the global market, businesses must step up to competitive challenges, rather than relying on governmental regulations to "level the playing field". Consumers deserve the choice of subscribing to alternatives to commercial radio and TV, and the providers deserve to provide whatever content there is a demand for.